

riverlore

The Riverlore illustration is of a Taniwha. In New Zealand mythology, Taniwha (pronunciation: tanifa) are creatures that live in deep pools in rivers, dark caves, or in the sea, especially in places with dangerous currents or deceptive breakers. They may be considered highly respected protective guardians of people and places, or in some traditions as dangerous, predatory beings.

PINOT GRIS 2016 marlborough, new zealand
